Category Review: Chips

RETAIL ANALYTICS

PREPARED FOR

Julia

Category Manager

PREPARED BY

Riya

Family and Retiree Segments Drive the Majority of Category Revenue

KEY FINDINGS

- Older Families (Budget) are the largest contributing segment with $44,859 in sales (8.77% market share).
- Retirees (Mainstream) contribute $40,592 (7.93% market share).
- Young Singles (Mainstream) contribute $40,070 (7.83% market share).
- Older Families (Mainstream) have the highest spend per customer at $14.41.
- Larger pack sizes (330g) are heavily purchased by Older Families (1,149 units) compared to Young Singles (865 units).

STRATEGIC RECOMMENDATION

Prioritise Older Families and Retirees through large-pack promotions and targeted volume strategies while maintaining premium pricing for Young Singles.

BUSINESS CONTEXT

Project Objectives

- Understand which customer segments drive chip sales.
- Identify purchasing behaviour differences across key segments.
- Recommend strategy for next 6 months based on data-driven insights.

Data Overview

- Analysis based on a full year sales dataset.
- Multiple lifestage and premium segments evaluated for comprehensive coverage.

264,836

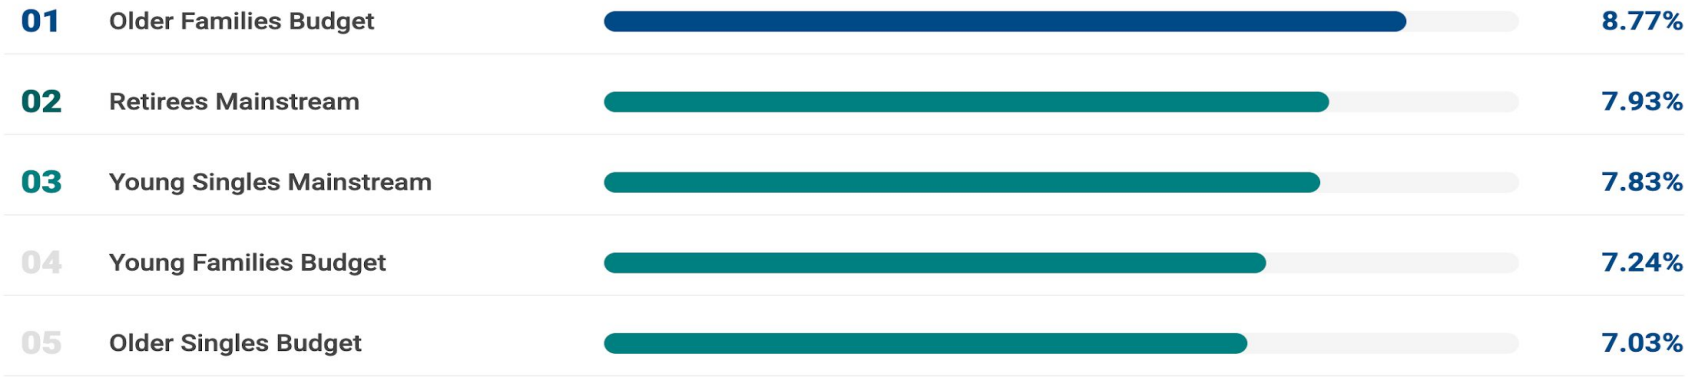
TRANSACTIONS ANALYSED

Older Families (Budget) Lead Category Sales

BUSINESS INSIGHT

Family and retiree segments represent the strongest revenue opportunity.

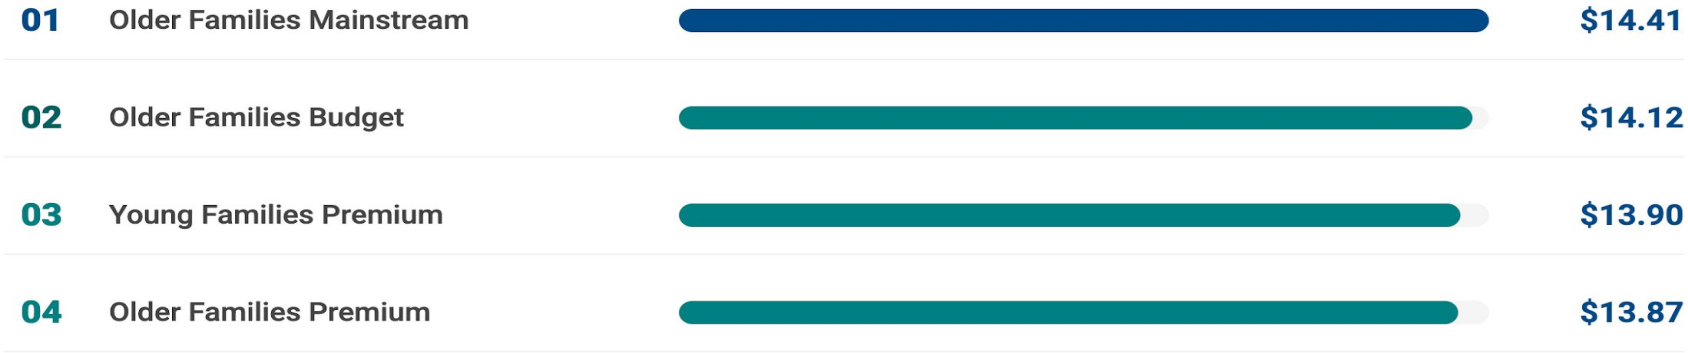
Sales Are Concentrated Among Family and Retiree Segments



BUSINESS INSIGHT

No single segment dominates, but family-based segments consistently appear in top performers.

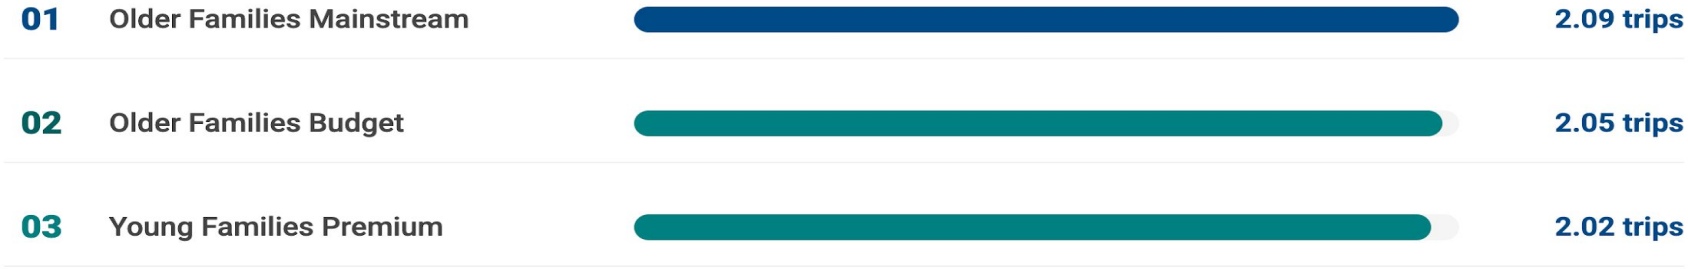
Older Families Spend More Per Customer



BUSINESS INSIGHT

Family segments are high-value customers, consistently driving higher spend per transaction compared to other groups.

Family Segments Shop More Frequently



BUSINESS INSIGHT

Higher frequency drives higher annual spend.

Large Pack Sizes Drive Family Purchases

330g Packs

OLDER FAMILIES

1,149

Units Purchased

330g Packs

YOUNG SINGLES

865

Units Purchased

BUSINESS INSIGHT

Older Families show stronger preference for family-size packs.

Mainstream Young Singles Prefer Premium Brands

Brand Share (Mainstream Young Singles)

01	Doritos	29.33%
02	Smiths	23.60%
03	Thins	18.01%

BUSINESS INSIGHT

Premium brand positioning works well with Young Singles.

Prioritise Families and Retirees While Protecting Premium Margins

Target Older Families

- Promote 330g packs to drive volume.
- Create bundle offers to increase basket size.

Focus on Retirees

- Maintain strong availability of mainstream brands.
- Emphasise value messaging in marketing.

Maintain Premium Pricing

- Promote Doritos and Thins to Young Singles.
- Avoid heavy discounting to protect margins.

Shelf Strategy

- Expand large pack shelf space in high-traffic aisles.
- Optimise placement of top 5 performing brands.

Execution Plan: Immediate Actions for Category Growth

PRIORITY ACTION
Run targeted promotions for Older Families

MONITORING
Monitor large-pack growth over next 6 months

TRACKING
Track spend per customer improvements

EVALUATION
Evaluate campaign ROI by segment